
Be Dynamic: How to Create a Million Dollar Voice!

Whether you are presenting to an audience of one or to an audience of a thousand, develop and express yourself vibrantly using expressive vocal delivery, dynamic speech and positive nonverbal messages. Capture and hold any audience because presentations and public speaking play a huge role in every executive's responsibilities!

- Learn how to send verbal messages that build trust and credibility
- Create a vocal tone that is friendly and warm
- Adjust your language to fit your audience
- Use gestures and body language that signal approachability
- Project confidence and poise

Possible Themes for this Workshop:

First Impressions

- It only takes seven seconds for your listener to decide if they want to listen to you. Be sure your speech, voice and body language show warmth and open communication.

Dynamic Introductions and Conclusions

- A good speech starts with an opening that gets attention and closes with impact to drive a point home. Don't let a slow beginning turn the listener away.

Impromptu Speaking

- Do you need to be controlled and focused for Q & A?

The Female Voice

- When you are given the floor are you powerful and precise or weak and timid? Learn to relax, choose strong action words and speak with confidence!

Featured Speaker

Lynda Waltner Stucky
President
ClearlySpeaking

